BIO

Riley Sieren is a Land Agent and Auctioneer of Peoples Company. Riley spends his time bringing buyers and sellers together where he focuses on the sale and acquisition of agricultural, recreational and developmental land. Riley is a native of Washington County, IA where he helps operate and manage their family farm. Growing crops and raising cattle has been part of life since birth giving Riley the expertise he needs in assisting you with the Farmland market. Recreational Land also comes second nature to Riley as his favorite hobby is chasing Whitetails and soaking up the outdoors whenever he gets the chance. Whether your looking at High quality Soils or Timber/Conservation land Riley has the knowledge and expertise to assist your needs

Riley has the passion it takes to achieve your goals. His attention to detail and stewardship to the land market make Riley a diligent agent to work with from beginning to end. When it comes to marketing Riley has a keen eye and a diligent approach to set your property apart and push it over the top.
